He's Carl Sawyer, a Regular Clown

NEW YORK, April 13.—A new comedian has flashed across the basebull horizon; a youth whose antics are more mirth-proveking that those of Nick Altrock, Germany Schaefer, Arije Latham or any other funny man the diamond game has produced. He is Carl Sawyer, late of Des Moines, which is in lowa, and new a utility keystone sacker and cosch for the Sentators Quiside of Washington, little is known of his second basing skill, but already he is a sensation as a clown. Sawyer is worth the price of admission any time he is billed to stage his "frisky donkey" act, do his flip-flopping and his "swimming" through the gram. He will make you forget your worrice, make you take deleat of the home feam with a smile and cause your to langh until your ribs feel as though Jess Willard has been banging them for a week.

Seasational Debut in Gotham.

Sawyer mads his first big league appearance as a coach for the Senators in the seventh limit of that opening Yankee-Senators hattle-and not one of that 20,000 crowd ever will forget him. He conducted himself with decorum until McBride doubled and Johnson sent him to third with a scarling. And then he broke loose from his dignified moorings.

He leaped high into the ozone, and came down with a crash upon his head.

The crowd gasped. It feared his next had been broken accidentally. But Sawyer rebounded like a rubber hall, leaped again, dove head first for the swishing it wildly he galloped up and the sawyer rebounded like a rubber hall, leaped again, dove head first for the swishing it wildly he galloped up and skicking in approved donkey style.
